THOUGHT FOR THE VETERANS DAY WEEK

- “On Veterans Day, we would do well, actually, we would do very well, to remember those men and women and their sacrifices. Maybe it's time we sacrificed a little for our veterans and their families.
- ☞For instance, if your neighbor is a young mother with a husband serving overseas, I hope you're offering to babysit for her so she can run errands and go to doctor appointments.
- ☞Maybe you can hold a fundraiser, as many communities are doing, to buy equipment a wounded warrior needs to make his or her life a bit easier.
- ☞Visit or volunteer at a veterans' home or hospital, and bring holiday gifts.
- ☞Do some research. Find veterans organizations that do good work for vets and their families and make a donation.
- But most of all, spend a little time getting to know these folks, and you will have a richer appreciation of the sacrifices they have made — sacrifices we all have got to be willing to emulate.”

“ For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.”
