THOUGHT FOR THE THANKSGIVING WEEK

"Jesus says, "...for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and your clothed me, I was sick and your visited me, I was in prison and you came to me." Mt 25:31-46 -- this is our high calling as followers of Christ. When we reach out to others as a way of expressing our love of them and our gratitude toward God – something else is accomplished: we witness to the Gospel. We show these people just a glimpse of Jesus Christ in our outreach, often without mentioning Him at all. "Preach the gospel always and if necessary, use words." Through our actions we express our thankfulness. Through our actions we show love and thankfulness, and more importantly, we show Jesus Christ to our fellow man.

It is through our Christian actions and interactions with others that our generic 'thank you' list becomes personal and acceptable to God. And people no longer need to ask what we're thankful for, because they can see it in our actions. By this type of active response, we have shown that we are truly thankful to God for our family, friends, and His church, for our very lives, and for our salvation."

"For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.".
